FEMALE ACADEMY.

The exercises of this Institution will commence on Tuesday the 1st day of January, 1839. The Director informs the community, that Miss STARK, who has assisted him this year, is engaged for the next also. With the assistance of this lady, and Mr. BAXTER in the Musical Department at the instrumental branches of Drawing, Painting, Needle-work & Music, will be taught in this institution, together with the solid subjects heretofore taught. Boarding can be obtained in the houses of the teacher for forty pupils, and in neighboring private houses to any extent desired. It is particularly desirable, that those who intend to place their children in this Institution for the next year, should do so in the first week of the opening of the school in January; as, in that way, the classes will be formed for the whole system to commence its operations on Monday of the second week.

The school room is provided with a piano and harpsichord, a large organ, and the usual instruments are the same as in summer. Such the accommodations, and in the winter, will be equal to those in the summer.

Price of the solid subjects, and Music, $100.00—Drawing, Painting, &c., $150.00—Piano, $100.00—Harpsichord, $100.00—Organ, $100.00—

AMERICAN HOTEL.

HAMBURG, S. C.
They trip it as they go,
On the light fantastic toe!"

The Hindu nymphs of whom we publish an account below are said by the critics not to dance as well as the Parisian danses. We suppose that they do not cut as many pirouettes as Fanny Essler, or Madame Celeste. This last lady is celebrated for her capers in France, and in our own country where she has danced to the infinite delight of our novelty-loving people.

It is a great pleasure in informing his friends & the public generally

that he has opened his large and commodious

House, and will be very thankful to them for a share of their patronage.

He flatters himself, that from the experience of the Lady who has charge of the domestic affairs of the House

also his Servants and Hostess, together with his own wife and daughter, will be most welcome guests.

He affords a convenience, particularly desirous

to persons who have business to attend

to, who may wish to take the Rail Road Car

for Charleston, and his Stable lots are well prepared for the accommodation of Gentlemen who may have Stock for sale.
